1979 DCF Bonfire Challenge Recap

Greetings to all our classmates on what we hope is a beautiful spring day when you read this note.

We are happy to report the successful completion of the Class of '79 Bonfire Challenge. The goal of this campaign was to have 79 of our classmates give to the Dartmouth College Fund during the March-April time frame. In the end, 82 of you gave a total of $49,281 - including $14,678 by an anonymous classmate, who matched each gift—regardless of the amount— with an additional $179. As a bonus, we also added 10 more members to the 1769 Society.

A big THANK YOU to our generous classmates!

As of today, our class has raised $560,643 with 345 donors. As proud as we are with the results, we still have one more major push before the June 30th fiscal year-end to reach our fund raising goal of $750,000 and 58% (542) class participation. If you are not already one and have interest in becoming/re-activating as a class agent, please contact either one of us. We would love to have you on the team.

And as a reminder, for all classmates who give gifts of $2,500 or more, you become proud members of the 1769 Society! Last year we had 64 members and right now we have 46 and counting up.

As always, we greatly appreciate the support and the generosity of all our classmates.

The Philadelphia area Class of '79 mini-reunion was a blast ! We had a perfect location to gather at PJ Clarke's (thanks to classmate Andy Rooke who is one of the restaurant's investors and hosts). Cocktails began at 6:00 in a fantastic club-like/ living room setting, followed by dinner in an adjoining room. We had this particular area to ourselves and couldn't have asked for a nicer evening.

No one went away hungry, thanks to Bill & Diana's generosity. Folks were given a chance to see a total eclipse in two years if they wish, thanks to Doug's organizing. Tony's return trip a week later for the 79th Day festivities proved successful this time. With the Gents, Roger and Steve, we were able to say we had multi-state representation. Da'aga gets our Naturalist of the Hike award, although Steve did spot the bluebird. I think T wins "Most Sylish" with his "Do-Rag."

Class of '79 April Visit to the National Museum of African American Heritage and Culture (NMAAHC) plus the Visit to the Harriet Tubman Museum and the Water's Edge Museum on Maryland's Eastern Shore

On a couple of recent sunny days, members of the Class of '79, at the urging and organization of the Class Committee on Race, visited the NMAAHC and two museums on Maryland's Eastern Shore, one focusing on Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad, the other on the African American founding families on the Eastern Shore and their lives. The fun turnout of classmates was mostly from the DC, Philly, and NYC metropolitan areas, but we did have Laurie Deacon in town from Cleveland for a work conference and Julie Weisman coming down from NH to do some visiting with relatives. The Sat night dinner at Oohh's and Aahh's, a black-owned restaurant in DC, featured the best soul food in town. Classmates attending certain of the events included the following: Julie Sudikoff Weisman plus her sister-in-law and the husband (Leslie Weisman & Doug Nelson), Da'aga Hill Bowman, Burr & Fiona Gray and Burr's brother Bruce Gray, Drew Dougherty '80, Gail Frawley Patterson, Otho Kerr & Darrell Allison, Maurice Simmons & Vicki Baker, Bruce Jackman, Hal Frazier and his two sons Ian and Duncan, Cindy Marder Calder & Jon Calder, Steve & Drusilla Hufford and son Alex, Polly Ingraham and son William (D'14), Laurie Laidlaw Deacon, Lee Jones & husband Bill Flynn, Victor Hoskins, Greg Aftandilian, Tony Anderson and Joké, and John & Susan Carson.

Hal Ripley Society Update

by Bill Mitchell

The Participatory™ Class of 79 has a robust collection of Hal Ripley members. 147 classmates have supported the Dartmouth College Fund every year since graduation. This year, 120 of them have already made a contribution.

The 79 Hal Ripley Society supported our Head Agent's recent call for contributions to be made by the 79th day of the year with another Hoodie campaign. It marked the third time the 79 Hal Ripleyites had competed for a random hoodie drawing. All 2022 Hal Ripley members were entered into the drawing, including the 23 classmates who contributed during the 79th day match campaign. Members who have a sustaining/recurring gift got 2 chances to win.

Our third hoodie contest winner was Colleen Sullivan Bartlett. Colleen is currently working as Director of Advancement for a K-12 school in California. She lives with her English teaching husband and high school junior daughter in Santa Monica and relishes the LA mini-reunions. Her daughter is starting the college application process. She was quick to grab the hoodie when it arrived and Colleen sent me a picture of it being worn but I had stipulated a classmate picture of the winner so attired for her classmates. Colleen fully expects to be retired by her daughter's sophomore year.

The final Hal Ripley drawing of the year will be made on gifts through the anniversary of our graduation, June 10, 2022. Classmates who can document they were unable to graduate on that date will be given a 79-hour grace period to make their DCF contribution.
